REX BEACH'S GREAT DRAMATIC TRIUMPH

Royal Theatre is Showing Wonderful Reel Before Huge Crowds.

The Royal Theatre was crowded far beyond its capacity both afternoon and evening yesterday to witness the wonderful moving picture production of Rex Beach's "The Spoilers." The great depiction of life in an Alaskan mining camp is presented in fine big reels, all of which are overflowing with dramatic life and action. Of course the big feature of all is the struggle in which the two bitter rivals for the love of a girl and a disputed hand-to-hand encounter. The show is certainly the most remarkable offering ever produced in Bisbee and every one who was unable to see it yesterday should attend today. Matinee starts at noon and continues throughout the afternoon and evening.

WELL KNOWN MINER DIES FROM INJURY

Passing of Albert Drew Removes Man Prominent in Civic and Musical Circles.

Albert Drew, a miner well known on account of his eight years at residence in the district, died Sunday afternoon as the result of injuries of an internal nature, sustained in a cave-in, Wednesday morning. At that time the injuries were not regarded as serious, being considered as of merely external nature. As a member of the Copper Queen band and as secretary of that organization, Drew had made a great many friends, as well as enjoying wide popularity among the general business and social circles. Drew leaves a wife and five children in England and a brother in Calumet, Mich., also two brothers-in-law, Louis and Bert Pascoe, and a cousin, Norman Pascoe, of Bisbee. The body will be shipped to Calumet, Mich., tonight for interment.

ELKS MINSTREL TO HOLD THE BOARDS SATURDAY EVENING

Douglas Elks, With Local Herd, to Present Minstrels Here on Saturday Evening. Show is Highly Recommended.

Announcement that Minstrelsy will hold the boards at the Orpheum Theatre Saturday evening carries with it more than the ordinary interest of the theatrical announcements in the first place there are very large numbers of theatre goers who would rather attend a minstrel performance than any other type of entertainment; there has not been a really high-class minstrel performance given in Bisbee for many, many months. The show is coming as in its list of performers some remarkable talent, not just hot to the music, but it is to be given by the Elks and the proceeds will go into the building of an Elks home. In undertaking to put on a minstrel show at this time Douglas Lodge is most fortunate, or it may be that the Elks showed remarkably good judgment. Always there are a number of excellent performers, singers, dancers and vaudeville artists among the entertainers at the Douglas Elks. Just at this time there are others that can be drawn upon and they have been drafted. Among the officers stationed at Douglas there is talent worthy of the name to see and hear and this has volunteered its services and it is believed that they also have resident in Douglas at this time a singer whose voice is heard the equal to some of the grand opera stars and a dancer who is truly remarkable. Thus is good material at hand more than doubled.

The Elks minstrelsy will be given in Douglas tonight and tomorrow night and will then be brought to this city for the Saturday night performance. Back of the Douglasites are the numbers of 671 who will turn out practically in a body with their wives or their sweethearts as the case may be and everybody who can get into the Orpheum on Saturday evening will be there. Exalted Ruler Hicks of the local lodge is appointing a committee to dispose of tickets which can be exchanged for reserved seats at Ball's Drug store on and after Friday.

SIXTH FIELD WINS FROM COPPER QUEEN

The Copper Queen team suffered defeat Sunday at Douglas, the Sixth Field Artillery winning by a 12-to-7 score. Cassidy pitched good ball for the losers, allowing but four hits up to the seventh inning, after which the visitors scored eight runs on four hits. Two of these were of the scratch variety. Boat and Champion drove out clean home run drives, while Urbink got one of the scratch order.

PHOENIX, May 10.—An unusual case has just been decided by Judge Stanford in the superior court of this county. By the decree entered, Lehman May is granted an absolute divorce from Clara May. Most Remarkable Effort For Social Uplift Ever Incorporated In Southwest Assumes Astonishing Proportions Under Superb Leadership of Secretary Richardson; Latest Team Reports Show Total Membership of 1267

The last lap is reached and the Y. M. C. A. workers are coming stronger all the way. Starting their great race with an enthusiasm which has never been even approached in the Southwest, the campaigners develop increased ardor as the home stretch comes in sight. Although no one has, for a moment, doubted the success of the movement which opened auspiciously under the inspiring influence of Secretary Richardson, yet it must be admitted that not even the most ardently enthusiastic expected the tremendous burst of speed which has brought the campaigners on their way, working zealously day and night, until last evening General Chairman Hodgson evoked a veritable hurricane of applause when he announced that the grand total to date was 1267.

After the applause greeting this announcement had abated to a decree, the team captains and committee members got down to detail and the statistics of yesterday's efforts were announced as follows: Captain Bennett 4, Dulles 5, Notman 15, Williamson 6, Heurle 7, Yeakum 2, Amos 3, Sinclair 2, Wright 8, Jeffersons 1, Cobbe 2, Gidley 2, Banks 1, Wolfe 2, McCourtney 2, Brockbank 2, Ludwig 7, Olson 2, Powell 2; total for the day 77.

Prof. Paschall of the University of Arizona, well known to the scientific agriculturists of this state as a dry farming expert, was introduced as the first speaker of the evening. The Elks expert told of his favorable experience with Y. M. C. A. efforts generally and said that, wherever he went, he found the association a great factor for good.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain unperfumed coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soap or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply massage the hair with water, and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, is soft, fresh looking, bright, lustrous, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dirt, dust and dandruff.

"THE ESCAPE" SOON APPEARS AT LOWELL

"The Escape," D. W. Griffith's moving picture production of Paul Armstrong's great play, which comes to the Lowell Theatre for four days, commencing Friday, May 14th, is a story of what an unhappy and sorrowful man can make for himself and family.

May Joyce, a child of the slums, longed for a better life. She continually brought her father, a stevedore, to try to better the condition of his children. With the exception of May, three children were in a bad way. Jennie was a pitiful example of the visitation of the sins of the father upon the children. Larry was fast becoming a crook. He was hit by a stone thrown by the father in drunken fury. The wound festered but the boy's natural tendency was intensified. "Bull" McGee, a power for evil in the neighborhood, wanted to marry May. To gain her favor he had Larry set upon and, after a night, arrested, McGee obtaining his release from the police. Here appears Dr. Von Elden, an ambulance surgeon called in to patch up Larry. Dr. Von Elden was impressed with the character of May. "At all costs," he told her, "escape from these surroundings." Partially as a result of the faked savings of Larry, and because there seemed no escape, May passively agreed to the marriage with McGee. On the morning of the wedding, however, a fly leaf message from Von Elden proved the deciding factor and she left by the fire escape.

Jennie's admiration for brute power caused her willingly to take May's place. May found work in an office from which she was later discharged. In the meantime she had met the senator who in admiration of her beauty, gave her his card reading, "If you ever need a friend come to me."

Jennie's marriage resulted in a baby which always cried to the constant anger of McGee. McGee falling over the cradle in a drunken stupor, the child cried no more. May, unable to obtain work, finally went to the senator and found the "easy way." A sudden illness led to her meeting Von Elden again. "You need me more than ever to escape," he told her. The senator contemplated to offer May marriage, but she, influenced by the words of Von Elden again escaped and found the work she needed in a hospital.

McGee sold his wife to the promoters of a foreign concert dive. She threw a note from the window and it came into the hands of Larry. The police raided the place and rescued Jennie, who was brought to May only to die. McGee escaped. He traced his wife in hopes of getting money and found her dead. Leaving there, he was tracked by the authorities and finally cornered and shot by Larry who had joined the chase. His murderous tendencies now fully aroused, Larry determined to kill his father. He was, however, intercepted by Dr. von Elden, who took him to his apartment. An operation was performed on Larry and the splinter of bone, which had so long penetrated his brain, was removed. Through the operation Larry became a normal man. May's love for Von Elden at last awakens, and the surviving members of the Joyce family became happily united. May's escape to a better life is complete.

According to State Engineer Lamar Cobb every county engineer in Arizona will attend the good roads convention scheduled for Tucson May 15th. D. B.
